

Be sure
to taste your words
before you spit them out.

Anonymous

Pupils in a Jesuit school are growing to be eloquent and truthful in what they say of themselves, the relations between people, and the world.

